COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Positive comments received via our new PowerEngage civic engagement tool:

The officer arrived promptly, assessed the situation and offered some advice to prevent future break-ins. He was professional and friendly.

Everyone was great to deal with. Thank you for all you do!!!

Thank you for your prompt attention to my welfare check request. I could not face a new year without knowing my son was ok.

They listen and responded right away I was happy with them

I had a very good response. It was a homeless person in the cold at our apartment complex where I am the maintenance man the officer that helped me at the sheriffs office she was very nice and willing to respond to the situation for A non-emergency call she was very Helpful on getting help for the gentleman in front of the building. I didn't know what else to do as far as helping him but their response was absolutely fabulous. I so appreciate it. Thank you guys. Sincerely, Rodney Creswell.

Every thing was excellent, thanks

ADDITIONAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

- We are excited to announce that Officer Aidan Naso has successfully completed field training and is now working in our community as a solo patrol officer. Officer Naso is currently assigned to the “4-car” on the weekends so you might not see a lot of him but if you do, I guarantee he’ll have a big smile on his face. He is a bundle of positivity and we’re excited to have him as part of the team.
- We are in the midst of an overhaul of our P.D. website with the assistance of Kalah Hardt and Monique Bechard. When completed this month, it will be one of the most expansive websites for a law enforcement agency our size with tons of information, documents, and links for our community in the Transparency & Accountability area as well as the About the Department area.
